

Dates Are Announced For Canning Plant Operation; Registration Is Necessary

By W. L. WALSH, Chairman
Coffee County Canning Committee

Coffee County forges ahead of all other Alabama counties and takes the lead in providing a great need for its people. No other county in Alabama can boast of five fine and up-to-date canning plants as we have located at Elba, Enterprise, Goodman, Kinston and Zion Chapel.

Georgia has taken the lead in canning projects in that they have located in the vocational schools of that State some 250 similar plants. They have seven or eight years start on Coffee County, but we feel that our county should be placed high up for the reason the Vocational Department of Georgia loaned us an experienced canning man who worked with us for two weeks training the vocational teachers and other workers to properly operate and manage these plants. We should be able to avoid many mistakes and benefit by their many years of successful canning experience.

Experts tell us that for a family of five people a supply of around 750 cans of vegetables, fruits, meats and juices are needed. Results of surveys in Coffee County reveal that the majority of our families are not providing this necessary amount of canned food. This is one reason why we have these canning plants.

Mr. R. L. O'Kelley, Vocational teacher from Georgia, who gave the two weeks training, says that it is more economical to can in tin cans than in glass and that in Georgia more people each year are changing over to tin cans for most of their canned products.

A car load of cans has been ordered so as to give Coffee County farmers the lowest price possible. These cans will be stored at the Elba Hatchery-Peet and Seed Store at Elba and at the Farmers Exchange at Enterprise, buy your cans in 100 size cases and save money. The price will run around $2.50 per 100 for No. 2 cans and $3.50 per 100 for No. 3 cans.

In order to operate these plants efficiently it will be necessary to have canning days and to schedule certain people for each day. To get on the canning list you should turn into the vocational workers of your area your name and list kind and amount of products you will have to can and be scheduled for a certain day and time of day. These canning lists will be made up two or three days ahead of time and if you want to use the plants your name must be turned in to one of the vocational workers as outlined.

Such products as beans, peas, carrots, etc., may be gathered and prepared the night before or early the morning they are to be canned. Beans, if gathered the night before, should be scattered over dryers not over one inch deep. They should be strong before bringing to the plant. Corn should be gathered the day it is brought to the plant and left in the shock.

In the Elba area, which includes the canning plants located at Elba and Zion Chapel, those wishing to can at these plants should contact either Miss Jean Richardson, Miss Velma Patterson, E. P. Gieger or W. L. Walsh.

In the Enterprise area, which includes plants at Enterprise and Goodman, contact Miss Rebecca Smith, Miss Opal Galloway, Ben Elworth or J. H. Kitchens.

At Kinston, Miss Ruby Lee Robinson and Roff Tullis should be contacted.

Canning Days For Next Week
Elba—Friday, June 2, Wednesday, June 7, and Friday, June 9.
Zion Chapel—Thursday, June 8.
Enterprise—Friday, June 8.
Tuesday, June 6, Friday, June 9.
Goodman—Tuesday, June 6, and Thursday, June 8.

Kinston—Thursday, June 1, and Wednesday, June 7.
A toll of 10 per cent will be charged, which is to go to the County Welfare Department to be distributed as needed. Those who patronize the canning plants should bring some wood along to help with the firing of the boiler.

Don't forget that your name must be on the scheduled list before you will be permitted to use the plants. See your vocational worker or drop one of them a card stating that you want to can.

Community meetings will be held just as soon as it is possible for these workers to get around and more detailed information will be given out.

ALABAMA PRESS TOUR IS PROVING POPULAR
From advance reservations for the official Alabama Press Association Convention Tour to Washington and the New York World's Fair that are being made from every section of Alabama, it is again an established fact that vacationers enjoy the Press tour and the many outstanding features this trip offers that no other tour can give.

A new plan offered this year is that you can take your trip on a specially arranged finance plan, paying one-fourth down and the balance in small monthly installments after your return. This method is proving very popular with those who desire a "better vacation" and wish to take advantage of the official entertainment publishers' vacation trip. The Alabama State Society in Washington has planned an elaborate program for the ball and banquet. New York is all set to give the ALABAMA Press group a warm welcome and a continuous round of enjoyable features.

IT IS IMPORTANT that you make reservations WITH THIS NEWSPAPER QUICKLY if you wish to join the Press trip—we want to insure you of the very best accommodations throughout the trip and to do so must have your registration now. Write us the trip and all of your plans for a banner trip—one you will long remember.

LARGE CLASSES ENROLLED IN VACATION BIBLE SCHOOLS
A large number of boys and girls are this week enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible Schools being held at the Baptist Church and the Methodist Church.

Announcement was made Tuesday that the enrollment had reached 135 at the Baptist Church and 84 at the Methodist Church. Classes are held each morning and wholesome entertainment and instruction are being given the youngsters from a corps of competent teachers. The schools will close tomorrow (Friday). Hereafter the schools have run two weeks but on account of conflict with other church activities plans were made for only one week.

Mr. Chapman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Chapman. He received his preparatory education in Alabama Polytechnic Institute, from which institution he will receive his degree with the 1939 class in August. He is a young man of splendid traits of character and is popular with the college and local sets.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple will be in Auburn for several weeks where Mr. Chapman will continue his college activities.

Only one-half of a day each week for fun and that time is Saturday P. M., and the place is Elba for the amateur program.

THE ELBA CLIPPER

ELBA, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1939

BAPTIST REVIVAL BEGINS NEXT MONDAY EVENING
Dr. D. I. Purser of Birmingham will be the visiting minister at a series of revival services beginning at the Elba Baptist Church next Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Dr. Purser is one of the outstanding pastors of North Alabama and Elbians are looking forward to his visit with the Baptist congregation here.

The singing will be in charge of Rev. J. B. Head of Mobile. Rev. Head is a fine leader and singer and has visited Elba before. According to the announcement, services will be held at ten o'clock in the morning and 7:45 in the evening. The public is cordially invited.

MISS WINDHAM AND MR. CHAPMAN TAKE VOYS—
Social interest was centered about the wedding of Miss Ann Morgan Windham of Elba and Mr. Roger Chapman of Elba and Auburn, which was beautifully solemnized at an impressive ceremony at the Baptist Church twenty-sixth, with Rev. J. A. Timmerman, pastor, reading the marriage vows in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives of the young couple.

The church was made a beautiful setting, decorated in tones of green and white, with floor baskets of gladoli, gardenias and alshasta candelabra burning cathedral candles forming an altar about the chancel against a background of red and white flowers.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. John Kendrick, pianist, played "Midnight Bella," by Henderberg; Mrs. J. A. Timmerman sang "O Promise Me," by DeKoven; Mr. Almon Strain played as from home solo, "Ich Liebe Dich," by Grog; and James Martin sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Stultz.

Mrs. Kendrick played the wedding march by Wagner to usher in the wedding party, with Mendelssohn's march being played as the recessional, and during the ceremony softly rendered "Calm As The Night" by Bohm, to add sweet solemnity.

The final elimination in the county clothing contest was held at the Courthouse in Elba on Saturday, May 27th, at 9:00 o'clock. The following girls participated in this contest:

Kathryn Holley, Damascus Club; Katherine Bedols, Damascus Club; Glenna Faye LeCompt, Mr. Pleasant Club; Mary Ellen Johnson, Curtis Club; Annie Marie Moore, Curtis Club; Norma Boutwell, Victoria Club.

The girls modeled their dresses and the construction was judged. Mrs. Nannie Mary Martin served as judges.

Mrs. Hutchinson discussed with the girls the construction of their dresses, using helpful criticism in the finishes of these dresses.

Glenna Faye LeCompt from Mt. Pleasant Club won first place and the Auburn school won second place.

Meet me in Elba Saturday afternoon at the amateur program.

METHODIST REVIVAL IS POSTPONED TILL JULY 2
Revival services at the Methodist Church of Elba, previously announced to begin on Sunday, June 25, have been postponed one week and will be held during the week beginning the first Sunday in July (July 2).

The change was made necessary on account of the inability of Dr. D. P. Slaughter to come to Elba during the last week in June. Dr. Slaughter is president of the Conference Board of Christian Education and will be in attendance at a leadership school in Montgomery the latter part of June.

The matter was brought to the attention of the congregation last Sunday, and the date has been changed to the first Sunday in July and Dr. Slaughter will be here at that time.

MRS. CHATREE HONORED AT BRIDGE PARTY—
Mrs. Milford Brock entertained at a delightful bridge party in her home on Hickman Avenue, which was effectively decorated with gladoli, alshasta daisies and dahlias of Birmingham.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Milford Brock was presented prize for high score and Mrs. Crabtree was awarded the guest prize.

Refreshing iced drinks, cakes and mints were served to the following players: Mrs. Price, Mrs. Ringo, Mrs. Felix Morrow, Mrs. Grull Tullman, Mrs. Milford Collier, Mrs. Crabtree, the honoree, and Mrs. Brock.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Baptists of Alabama are lining up enthusiastically for the approaching campaign to wipe out the $60,000 current indebtedness of Howard College, according to reports reaching leaders of the denomination in Birmingham.

Frank P. Sanford, president of the Liberty National Life Insurance Company, in charge of the campaign for the Birmingham district, reports that advances from the drive and secretaries-treasurers of the State Baptist Convention, advises him that an awakened and eager interest in Howard is evidenced in Baptist ranks throughout the State as the date—Sunday, June 4—for formal opening of the campaign draws near.

"Scattered all over Alabama," Mr. Sanford pointed out, "are Baptist churches whose pastors—and many of whose members are former students or graduates of Howard. In every nook and corner of the State these loyal sons of Howard are backing the campaign not only by word of mouth, but by making or getting ready to make when the campaign opens, substantial contributions to the cause."

In practically every one of the 10 districts into which Alabama has been divided, organizations have been perfected for a whirlwind campaign. Dr. Barnes advances an early and successful culmination of the drive.

In many schools of the State, Dr. Barnes points out, are men and women teachers, former students of Howard, and these, too, are putting their shoulders to the wheel, determined that this debt burden on "Mother Howard's" shoulders shall speedily be lifted.

Banning up, Dr. Barnes is confident that Baptists of the State will not prove laggard, but realizing what the college has meant and still means—to the denomination, will enter wholeheartedly into the movement to erase the indebtedness of $60,000 debt.

FINALE ELIMINATION IN CLOTHING CONTEST HELD
The final elimination in the county clothing contest was held at the Courthouse in Elba on Saturday, May 27th, at 9:00 o'clock. The following girls participated in this contest:

Kathryn Holley, Damascus Club; Katherine Bedols, Damascus Club; Glenna Faye LeCompt, Mr. Pleasant Club; Mary Ellen Johnson, Curtis Club; Annie Marie Moore, Curtis Club; Norma Boutwell, Victoria Club.

The girls modeled their dresses and the construction was judged. Mrs. Nannie Mary Martin served as judges.

Mrs. Hutchinson discussed with the girls the construction of their dresses, using helpful criticism in the finishes of these dresses.

Glenna Faye LeCompt from Mt. Pleasant Club won first place and the Auburn school won second place.

Meet me in Elba Saturday afternoon at the amateur program.

METHODIST REVIVAL IS POSTPONED TILL JULY 2
Revival services at the Methodist Church of Elba, previously announced to begin on Sunday, June 25, have been postponed one week and will be held during the week beginning the first Sunday in July (July 2).

The change was made necessary on account of the inability of Dr. D. P. Slaughter to come to Elba during the last week in June. Dr. Slaughter is president of the Conference Board of Christian Education and will be in attendance at a leadership school in Montgomery the latter part of June.

The matter was brought to the attention of the congregation last Sunday, and the date has been changed to the first Sunday in July and Dr. Slaughter will be here at that time.

MRS. CHATREE HONORED AT BRIDGE PARTY—
Mrs. Milford Brock entertained at a delightful bridge party in her home on Hickman Avenue, which was effectively decorated with gladoli, alshasta daisies and dahlias of Birmingham.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Milford Brock was presented prize for high score and Mrs. Crabtree was awarded the guest prize.

Refreshing iced drinks, cakes and mints were served to the following players: Mrs. Price, Mrs. Ringo, Mrs. Felix Morrow, Mrs. Grull Tullman, Mrs. Milford Collier, Mrs. Crabtree, the honoree, and Mrs. Brock.

Ed Clark, of El Paso, Texas, arrived last Wednesday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Clark. Ed has many friends in Elba who are delighted to see him.

ORPHANS HOME GETS $86,000 BY SAVING SOAP COUPONS

Those not familiar with the various sources from which denominational Homes of our State derive income, will be surprised to learn that a steady flow of cash comes from the modest soap coupons. One child-caring Home has received more than $80,000, others have gained substantially large sums, through this same source.

Alert housewives of Alabama were first to visualize, in the saving of coupons the unusual opportunity afforded them to help their favorite charities—without cost to themselves. With them, the saving of coupons has become a sort of daily ritual, performed to help unfortunate boys and girls in the Church-supported Homes of the State.

Most of these coupons are from the well-known family of Octagon Soap Products which are used in the majority of households of Alabama. Other valuable coupons are found in the packages of Oldfashions Baking Powder, Ball's Oatmeal, Flour and Lard, and Coffee and Tea.

It is only through the earnest effort of all good friends that food and clothing can be provided and Homes maintained for the underprivileged boys and girls. The Baptist Orphan Home at Troy, the Methodist Children's Home at Selma and the Presbyterian Home for Children at Talladega, appeal to you to continue saving and sending coupons. If you have never been a regular coupon contributor to this worthy cause, start now. Your coupons, be they few or many, will do their part in this wonderful work of supporting these less fortunate.

WELFARE BOARD ENJOYS DELIGHTFUL PICNIC—
The Board of Public Welfare, the Board of Public Health, the Board of Public Safety and the Board of Public Education, near Enterprise, last Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. W. S. Huey of Enterprise, and Mrs. W. S. Huey of Enterprise, two members of the board, were the committee on arrangements for the delicious menu, which consisted of fried chicken, chicken stew, potato salad, ice cream and tea.

Those included in this delightful outing were Mrs. Huey and her family, Mrs. W. S. Huey, John L. Sawyer and A. J. Harrell, members of the Board; Mrs. Kathleen T. Ellis, Miss Elizabeth Tisdale, Miss Carrie Vaughn, Mrs. George Lindsey and Mrs. Cassie Hutchinson, staff members; Mrs. A. J. Harrell, Mrs. F. P. Brunson, L. L. Farris, W. S. Huey, Colly Pittman and J. M. Ellis, guests.

GRADUATES ADVISED TO GET SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS
As the graduation season draws to a close high school and college students are advised to obtain Social Security account numbers before seeking employment. This advice was given by E. P. Randall, manager of the Social Security Board Field Office in Dothan.

"Many employers now insist that a new worker show his or her social security number before taking a job," Mr. Randall said.

"It is much easier to get a number before applying for work, whether temporary or permanent, full-time or part-time, than it is to have to go to our office later and get a card. Meanwhile, the job may be taken by someone else who already has a number. Numbers should be obtained even though there is no immediate certainty of work."

"Any person who works in business, commerce or industry is covered by the Federal old-age insurance system, except in a few specific cases. There is no age limit on the down side, so far as coverage is concerned. Workers who reach age 65 no longer are covered under old-age insurance, as the social security law now stands, and deductions from their pay cease at that age."

Social Security account numbers may be obtained easily, quickly and without charge at Mr. Randall's office at Room 10, Porter Building in Dothan, Ala. The Dothan office serves the following counties: Alabama—Barbour, Henry, Houston, Dale, Geneva, Coffee and Covington; Florida—Holmes, Washington, Bay, Jackson, Calhoun and Gulf.

NOTICE FARMERS!
All farmers who pooled their 1938 cotton crop now have a small equity in that cotton. I want to buy your equity and will pay cash. Bring green slips showing weights, grade, staple, etc., to me or to Harold English at Elba Gin and Warehouse.

J. O. ENGLISH,
Elba, Alabama.

Ed Clark, of El Paso, Texas, arrived last Wednesday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Clark. Ed has many friends in Elba who are delighted to see him.

ELBA OIL COMPANY
24-HOUR SERVICE.
F. F. CLARK, Mgr. - PHONE 33. - ELBA, ALA.

You're Welcome
You may never have been inside our bank. Nevertheless, we want you to know that you are always welcome. Let us tell you about our services, and show you our facilities. See for yourself how closely we are geared to serve the community's banking needs, in a friendly and helpful way. Then, if you feel that we can serve you to advantage, we will be glad to have you as a depositor and a customer.

ELBA EXCHANGE BANK
J. F. BRUNSON, Pres. E. G. BRAGG, Vice-Pres.
T. B. BRYAN, Cashier L. R. DEAL, Asst.-Cashier

Monroe Jacobs Goes On Trial Today; Court Hears Many Cases During Term

With Judge W. L. Parks presiding, the spring term of Circuit Court for the trial of criminal cases convened in Elba Monday morning. Cases on the docket had been set for hearing during the first three days of the week and up to noon Wednesday many had been disposed of through pleas, jury trial, etc. A complete list of these cases will be given next week after Judge Parks passes sentence on the defendants at the close of the term.

Solicitor J. Alex Huey is looking after the State's interest in the prosecution of cases. Clarence McArthur, genial reporter, is in attendance taking down evidence, court orders, etc. for official record.

The trial of Monroe Jacobs, prominent Zion Chapel community farmer, charged with first degree murder, has been set for trial today (Thursday). Jacobs, it will be remembered, is charged with the fatal shooting of Pete Jackson, which occurred at the store of Eugene Brown on Christmas Eve. A large number of witnesses have been summoned both for the State and for the defendant and a large crowd is expected to attend the trial today.

In addition to the regular thirty-six jurors serving this week, a special venire of twenty-five has been drawn for the Thursday trial. The regular jurors serving for the term are:

E. L. Owen, Ed L. Hornsby, W. M. Head, L. A. Martin, N. W. Stinson, L. L. Cardwell, J. N. Preston, Jr., H. L. Lott, Geo. M. Hurlwood, R. L. Wilson, Clyde Johnston, Perry L. Lambert, S. W. Fillingim, M. C. Tatum, J. Grady Hayes, Ed M. Lambert, Rex Lowery, H. T. Holley, C. F. Hauchey, C. J. Meeks, Jr., J. J. Smith, C. L. Barker, J. T. Brooks, E. L. Kemp, H. L. White, O. J. Clark, J. H. Moody, Jr., J. A. Johnson, Jr., John T. Grimes, O. M. Daniels, Will Vaughan, F. D. Veal, Tom Hutchinson, Gordon O. Prescott, Dave Vaughan, Jr., Flournoy Whitman.

$243,596.98 PAID TO COFFEE FARMERS IN BENEFITS
A total of $243,596.98 has been received in Coffee County on the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program. This amount represents payment on 1,665 applications and was distributed to 3,221 individuals. This leaves 500 to 600 applications yet to be paid.

KINSTON BOY IS HONOR STUDENT AT AUBURN
AUBURN, Ala.—H. Lloyd Sturgeon of Kinston was awarded the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine at Auburn's 67th Commencement Exercises Monday with the highest scholastic average of all graduates in his department.

Sturgeon is a member of the Junior American Veterinary Medical Association.

Everybody has a good time at Elba on Saturday P. M., so join the crowd and enjoy the free fun.

SPECIAL PRICES ON TIRES
For a short time only we are offering special low prices on GUARANTEED TIRES:

450-21.....	$ 5.50
475-19.....	7.00
550-17.....	8.50
600-16.....	10.00
SAFETY SILENT TREAD
600-16.....	$14.00

ELBA OIL COMPANY
24-HOUR SERVICE.
F. F. CLARK, Mgr. - PHONE 33. - ELBA, ALA.

You're Welcome
You may never have been inside our bank. Nevertheless, we want you to know that you are always welcome. Let us tell you about our services, and show you our facilities. See for yourself how closely we are geared to serve the community's banking needs, in a friendly and helpful way. Then, if you feel that we can serve you to advantage, we will be glad to have you as a depositor and a customer.

ELBA EXCHANGE BANK
J. F. BRUNSON, Pres. E. G. BRAGG, Vice-Pres.
T. B. BRYAN, Cashier L. R. DEAL, Asst.-Cashier

DORSEY SEZ:

The best place to buy a used car is from an authorized dealer who has the reputation of giving honest value in every sale.

Our used cars are thoroughly reconditioned and are sold to you with a guarantee of satisfaction for long service and economical operation.

We have a large stock for you to choose from and will be glad to demonstrate these super values.

PHONE 148

Sales—CHEVROLET—Service

HONEST VALUE IN USED CARS

Mr. Chapman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Chapman. He received his preparatory education in Alabama Polytechnic Institute, from which institution he will receive his degree with the 1939 class in August. He is a young man of splendid traits of character and is popular with the college and local sets.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple will be in Auburn for several weeks where Mr. Chapman will continue his college activities.

Only one-half of a day each week for fun and that time is Saturday P. M., and the place is Elba for the amateur program.

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Published Every Thursday Morning

R. C. BRYAN, Owner-Publisher

Entered as second class matter July 18, 1905, at the Postoffice at Elba, Alabama, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

One Year $1.50
Six Months75
STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE

MY COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE

The following editorial, written by R. G. Calvert and which appeared in the Portland, Oregon, Oregonian, was awarded the 1938 Pulitzer Prize for the best Editorial of the year.

In this land of ours, this America, the man we choose as leader does at no time uniform or insignia to denote his constitutional position as Commander in Chief of armed forces. No member of his Cabinet, no civil subordinate, ever attires himself in garments significant of military power.

In this land of ours, this America, the average citizen sees so little of the army that he has not learned to distinguish between a major and a lieutenant from his shoulder straps. When the chief Executive addresses his fellow-countrymen they gather about him within handspan distance. Goosestepping regiments are not paraded before him. When he speaks to the civilian population it is not over rank upon rank of helmeted heads.

In this land of ours, this America, there is no tramp of military boots to entertain the visiting statesman. There is no effort to frighten him with display of mobile cannon or of facility for mass production of aerial bombers.

In this land of ours, this America, there is no fortification along the several thousand miles of the northern border. In the great fresh water seas that partly separate it from another dominant no naval craft plies the waters. Along its southern border there are no forts, no show of martial strength.

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

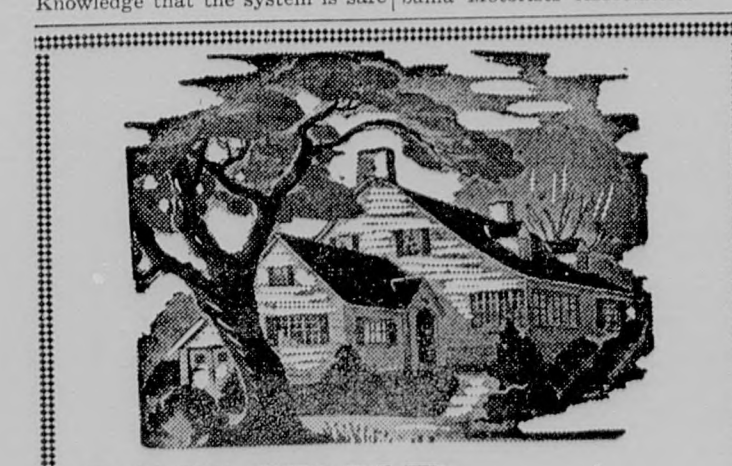

In this land of ours, this America, there is not a bomb-proof shelter, and a gas mask is a curiosity. It is not needed that we teach our children where to run when deathrains darken the sky.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

Safe wiring is the responsibility of the home owner and should be assured if he hires a reliable contractor who understands his work and is acquainted with the fire underwriters code. Home owners are urged to have the wiring inspected before approving the work or completing payment for it. Knowledge that the system is safe.

Since 1920, pediatric deaths in cities have declined 70 per cent and have risen 66 per cent in rural districts, according to Alabama Mortality Association.

LUMBER....

Grade Marked and Trade Marked Lumber to meet all specifications of the

Federal Housing Administration

Jackson Lumber Co.

Phone 105—Elba, Alabama

FARMER JONES AND HIS COW PEN

By JUDGE W. M. BRUNSON

POISON FOR BEANS.—Carried an article last week about butter beans and snap beans. I suggested that you get in touch with your farm agent and ask him to give you full information for fighting the bug which destroys your butter beans and your snap beans. My reason for making this suggestion was that I understood that the poison used was a substance put out by one company and the price was not trying to be advertised any commercial product. Since writing that article I have learned that I was mistaken about the matter. This poison is put out by all the big manufacturers and it is not named by the makers.

Since I wrote the article last week I have had quite a number of requests that I give you the information instead of requiring them to go to a bulletin for it. Since I was mistaken about the matter I'm glad to tell you how to do it. The name of the chemical used is "DERIS" and it may be purchased at any good seed and feed or drug store. It comes in a powder form and should be dusted on your vines at regular intervals. Your druggist may have a powder form and should be dusted on your vines at regular intervals. Your druggist may have a powder form and should be dusted on your vines at regular intervals.

In this land of ours, this America, there is no tramp of military boots to entertain the visiting statesman. There is no effort to frighten him with display of mobile cannon or of facility for mass production of aerial bombers.

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

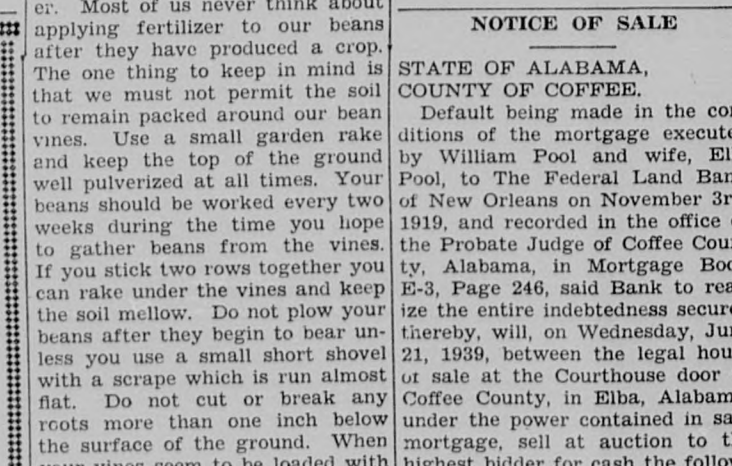

In this land of ours, this America, there is not a bomb-proof shelter, and a gas mask is a curiosity. It is not needed that we teach our children where to run when deathrains darken the sky.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

Safe wiring is the responsibility of the home owner and should be assured if he hires a reliable contractor who understands his work and is acquainted with the fire underwriters code. Home owners are urged to have the wiring inspected before approving the work or completing payment for it. Knowledge that the system is safe.

Since 1920, pediatric deaths in cities have declined 70 per cent and have risen 66 per cent in rural districts, according to Alabama Mortality Association.

LUMBER....

Grade Marked and Trade Marked Lumber to meet all specifications of the

Federal Housing Administration

Jackson Lumber Co.

Phone 105—Elba, Alabama

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Thursday, June 1, 1939

THANK YOU

THE splendid cooperation of Alabama's ABC Board, county and city officials, the Alabama Press has made it possible for the Brewers and Alabama Beer Distributors Committee to move steadily ahead with its work of "cleaning up or closing up" the small minority of flagrant law violators among the state's 1,600 retail beer outlets.

For this cooperation, Alabama's beer industry is grateful as it drives ahead with its self-regulation program to place the sale of beer on a clean, wholesome basis. Since launching our program March 16 the ABC Board, on cases initiated by the industry itself, has revoked 11 licenses and suspended 5 others.

As the Huntsville Times said: "The word is already around that the ABC Board and Beer Distributors Committee will stand no 'monkey business' and that the only way to stay in business is to observe to the letter their rules and regulations."

DAVID E. DUNN, State Director
BREWERS AND ALABAMA BEER
DISTRIBUTORS COMMITTEE
704 First National Bank Building, Montgomery

CONTINUATION OF PEANUT DIVERSION PROGRAM URGED

AUBURN, Ala., May 10.—(Formal request for the continuation of the peanut diversion program in 1939 was made to the Division of Marketing and Marketing Agreements of the U. S. Department of Agriculture by delegates representing peanut growers of Alabama and five other Southern States who attended a recent conference in Washington. Emmett Sizemore, extension supervisor, said today.

The conference was requested by the GFA Peanut Association of Georgia, Florida and Alabama to discuss peanut marketing problems with Department of Agriculture officials. It was attended by delegates representing the GFA Association of Cananda, Ga., the Peanut Stabilization Cooperative, Inc., Edenton, N. C., the Virginia Peanut Growers Cooperative, Waverly, Va., and the Southeastern Peanut Growers Association, Brownwood, Texas.

The request for continuation of the peanut diversion program was made in a resolution unanimously approved by the conference. The resolution expressed the appreciation of peanut growers for the program initiated in 1938 and in past years. Officers and other representatives of the various operating marketing agencies attending the conference emphasized the necessity and benefits of the program in their reports on operations in 1938.

These organizations assisted in the peanut diversion program, which sought to help maintain prices to farmers by encouraging domestic consumption of peanuts. The past have included Spanish and Runner types of grade 2 or better, and Virginia peanuts. The past have included Spanish and Runner types of grade 2 or better, and Virginia peanuts.

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

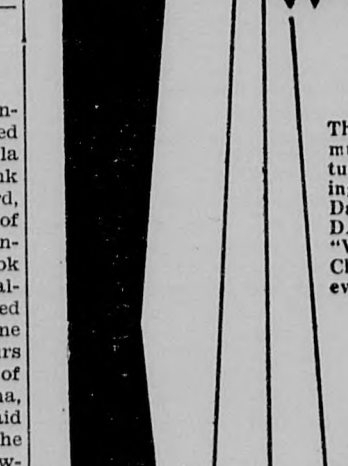

In this land of ours, this America, there is not a bomb-proof shelter, and a gas mask is a curiosity. It is not needed that we teach our children where to run when deathrains darken the sky.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

Safe wiring is the responsibility of the home owner and should be assured if he hires a reliable contractor who understands his work and is acquainted with the fire underwriters code. Home owners are urged to have the wiring inspected before approving the work or completing payment for it. Knowledge that the system is safe.

Since 1920, pediatric deaths in cities have declined 70 per cent and have risen 66 per cent in rural districts, according to Alabama Mortality Association.

LUMBER....

Grade Marked and Trade Marked Lumber to meet all specifications of the

Federal Housing Administration

Jackson Lumber Co.

Phone 105—Elba, Alabama

dayman of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute in the AAA have proved to be a successful means of protecting prices by holding surplus corn off the market until it is needed.

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

In this land of ours, this America, there is not a bomb-proof shelter, and a gas mask is a curiosity. It is not needed that we teach our children where to run when deathrains darken the sky.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

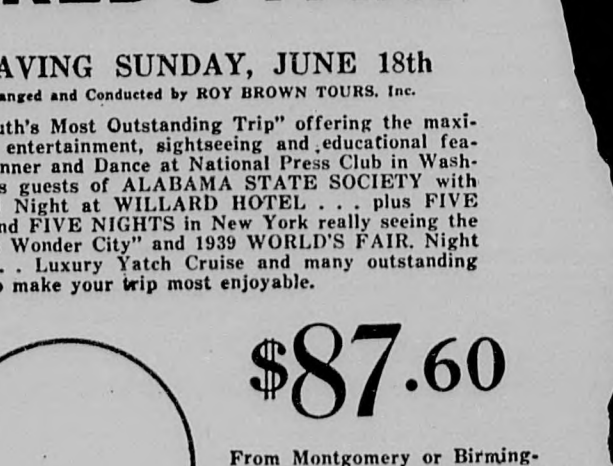

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

Safe wiring is the responsibility of the home owner and should be assured if he hires a reliable contractor who understands his work and is acquainted with the fire underwriters code. Home owners are urged to have the wiring inspected before approving the work or completing payment for it. Knowledge that the system is safe.

Since 1920, pediatric deaths in cities have declined 70 per cent and have risen 66 per cent in rural districts, according to Alabama Mortality Association.

LUMBER....

Grade Marked and Trade Marked Lumber to meet all specifications of the

Federal Housing Administration

Jackson Lumber Co.

Phone 105—Elba, Alabama

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Thursday, June 1, 1939

Space Livingston Hill

SIXTEENTH INSTALLMENT

But the next day wasn't half long enough, and sped away so fast they were agitated. Marjorie was here and there and everywhere, and everybody restless because the time was getting shorter and shorter. How they were going to miss her, the daughter who had only known them a few short days.

Finally Marjorie and Gideon were seated in the train as it moved off, waving to the father and Ted. Then the train swept out of the station and they were alone.

The minister got out his pocket Bible and again and again the two heads were bent over the text. Marjorie took out her pencil and notebook and kept a great many references for her help when she got back to Chicago alone. So the time flew fast. It seemed only a brief space before Gideon was to put on his overcoat, seize his hat and suitcase, grasp her hand with life as she had left it.

After breakfast she went from room to room and tried to take up the thread of life. For this one week at least she was committed to do nothing definite about leaving her home. But that did not include Evan Brower. In the afternoon she wrote a note to him:

"Dear Evan: This is just to tell you that I got home today and shall be glad to see you whenever you feel like calling."

The time passed very quickly and in the afternoon she went to see her lawyer and check up on business matters. Then just since dinner Evan Brower came. Evan told her of the news since she had been gone, and at last he got out the little velvet box again. "Marjorie," he said in a calm voice, "I want you to put my ring on now and wear it."

Then Marjorie looked calmly at Evan Brower and answered in a clear voice:

"Evan, I do appreciate your kindness and your thought for me, and I feel sorry that I had to be so uncertain in the past for you to tell me about these things. But now that I am home again, I have thought it all over and made a very definite decision. I am not going to marry you, either now or at any other time. I am quite sure that I do not love you as a woman ought to love a man she marries."

Evan Brower looked at her steadily, calmly, and slowly put the ring back in its box and the box away in his pocket. "Very well," he said quietly, determinedly, "if you haven't come to your senses yet I can wait, of course, till you do."

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

Safe wiring is the responsibility of the home owner and should be assured if he hires a reliable contractor who understands his work and is acquainted with the fire underwriters code. Home owners are urged to have the wiring inspected before approving the work or completing payment for it. Knowledge that the system is safe.

Since 1920, pediatric deaths in cities have declined 70 per cent and have risen 66 per cent in rural districts, according to Alabama Mortality Association.

LUMBER....

Grade Marked and Trade Marked Lumber to meet all specifications of the

Federal Housing Administration

Jackson Lumber Co.

Phone 105—Elba, Alabama

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Thursday, June 1, 1939

Buyer Reveals Increasing Availability of Alabama Made Products

George H. Cole, Purchasing Agent of Alabama Power Co., and recently elected president of the Purchasing Agents Association of Birmingham, is enthusiastic about the increasing number of products of good quality manufactured in Alabama.

While reviewing Alabama Power Company purchases recently, Mr. Cole noted a number of items now available from Alabama manufacturers, which until relatively few years ago, were not made in Alabama. Among these items are: truck bodies and trailers, brass and steel, galvanized structural steel, galvanized pipes, valves, elbows, steam traps, and other items of heavy machinery.

Mr. Cole stated that he believed that the Alabama-made products are of equal quality to those made elsewhere. He stated that he believed that the Alabama-made products are of equal quality to those made elsewhere.

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

In this land of ours, this America, there is not a bomb-proof shelter, and a gas mask is a curiosity. It is not needed that we teach our children where to run when deathrains darken the sky.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

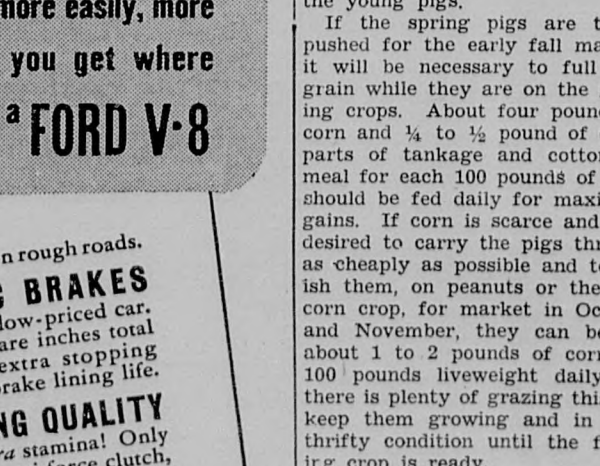

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

In this land of ours, this America, our troubles present or prospective come from within—come from our own mistakes, and not from without. Our pledges of peace toward our neighbors are as strong as the ruler's promise or written treaty. We guarantee them by devoting our resources, greater than the resources of any other nation, to upholding the industries of peace. We cause no nation in our half of the world to fear us. None does fear us, nor arm against us.

In this land of ours, this America, we have illuminated the true road to permanent peace. But that is not the sole motto sought here to be drawn. Rather it is that the peace of liberty and equality and peace that have been herein recounted are possessed nowhere in Europe or Asia and were or disappear as one hears or enters a land of dictatorship without brand. This liberty, this equality, this peace, are embodied in our form of government. We shall retain them if foreign lands that would dig them out and destroy them are barred from our shores. If you cherish this liberty, this equality, this peace, that is peace material and peace spirit—then defend with all your might the American ideal of government.

Safe wiring is the responsibility of the home owner and should be assured if he hires a reliable contractor who understands his work and is acquainted with the fire underwriters code. Home owners are urged to have the wiring inspected before approving the work or completing payment for it. Knowledge that the system is safe.

Since 1920, pediatric deaths in cities have declined 70 per cent and have risen 66 per cent in rural districts, according to Alabama Mortality Association.

LUMBER....

Grade Marked and Trade Marked Lumber to meet all specifications of the

Federal Housing Administration

Jackson Lumber Co.

Phone 105—Elba, Alabama

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Thursday, June 1, 1939

Buyer Reveals Increasing Availability of Alabama Made Products

George H. Cole, Purchasing Agent of Alabama Power Co., and recently elected president of the Purchasing Agents Association of Birmingham, is enthusiastic about the increasing number of products of good quality manufactured in Alabama.

While reviewing Alabama Power Company purchases recently, Mr. Cole noted a number of items now available from Alabama manufacturers, which until relatively few years ago, were not made in Alabama. Among these items are: truck bodies and trailers, brass and steel, galvanized structural steel, galvanized pipes, valves, elbows, steam traps, and other items of heavy machinery.

Mr. Cole stated that he believed that the Alabama-made products are of equal quality to those made elsewhere. He stated that he believed that the Alabama-made products are of equal quality to those made elsewhere.

In this land of ours, this America, no youth is conscripted to take on devices of defense; military training he may take or leave at option. There is no armed force consistent with a policy of aggression. The navy is built against no menace from the Western Hemisphere, but wholly for defense against that which may threaten from Europe or Asia.

In this land of ours, this America, one-third of the population is foreign born or native born of foreign or mixed parentage. Our numerous "minorities" come from fourteen nations. The native born, whatever his descent, has all political and other rights possessed by him who traces his ancestry to the founding fathers. The foreign born of races that are assimilable are admitted to all these privileges. If they want them. We have "minorities" but no minority problem.

In this land of ours, this America, our songs are dedicated to love and romance, the blue of the night, sails in the sunset, and not to might or to a martyrdom to political cause. Our national anthem has martial words, difficult air. But if you want to hear the organ roll give the people its companion—America. . . of the land. In lighter patriotism we are nationally cosmopolitan. Untidely we sing of Dixie or of Iowa, where the tall corn grows, of Springfield in the Rockies, or of California, here I come.

